Hepatica acutiloba
sharp-lobed hepatica

This early spring ephemeral is one of the first to bloom!

Type: Perennial
Family: Ranunculaceae
Range: Throughout North Carolina
Color: Pink, Lavender, White
Blooms: March, April
Size: 3”-6”
Lighting: Shade
Water: Moist, well-drained

We recommend incorporating sweeps in woodland, native plant, and rock gardens.